

Offord

CENTRE FOR CHILD STUDIES

Profile & People

The Offord Centre is a multi-disciplinary research institute focused on studying ways to improve the lives, health & development of children.

23
Research faculty

6
Postdoctoral Fellows

13
PhD students

Over 50
Research staff

8 Offord researchers hold university, Ontario, CIHR or Canada Research Chairs.

We receive approximately $2.6 million in research funding annually.

THIS IS WHAT WE DO

The Offord Centre has many large-scale projects funded by the federal & provincial governments:

Early Development Instrument

Pathways in Autism Spectrum Disorder

2014 Ontario Child Health Study

Nurse Family Partnership Curriculum Study

Preventing Violence across the Lifespan

Partnerships:

International health orgs	Academic institutions	Provincial governments	Clinical services	School boards
(UNESCO, WHO)	(Universities of Western, Toronto, Manitoba, B.C., Queens University, CHEO)	(MCYS, EDU, MOHLTC)	(Kinark, McMaster Child & Youth Mental Health Program)	(Hamilton, Halton, Niagara, York & Durham)

Areas of Focus

Researchers at the Offord Centre work in one of four areas:

